

A black and white photograph of a rustic food still life. In the center, a white circular logo contains the text 'RESTARIA' in large, bold, sans-serif capital letters, and 'GENEMUIDEN' in smaller, bold, sans-serif capital letters below it. The background features a wooden surface with various food items: several potatoes, some in a burlap sack, a sprig of rosemary, a crumpled paper bag, and two glass jars with metal clasps, one of which contains a dark, chunky substance. The overall aesthetic is natural and artisanal.
